

Please keep the current media ownership rules. Don't let fewer people own more media outlets. The TV, radio and newspapers are already sounding all the same. We need more opinions and voices in our media. Not more of the same. Media expounding all kinds of views is a critical element of democracy.

Thank you.